YEAR STARTS OUT AT CONSERVATORY

ALL DEPARTMENTS HAVE GOOD ENROLLMENT IN MUSIC

NEW TEACHER IS ADDED

Miss Alyse M. Swedberg of La Grange, Ill., to Have Charge of Piano Department—Has Good Record

The Maryville Conservatory of Music opened today for the fall term with a good enrollment in all departments.

Alyse M. Swedberg of La Grange, Ill., will take charge of the work in the department of piano and theory, formerly taught by Miss Berenice Rice, director of the school. Miss Swedberg comes here after a number of years as a successful teacher in the University School of Music, Lincoln, Neb., and as director of the piano department of the Chadron, Neb., State Normal for the past six years.

After completing graduate work in several good schools, she has studied the past two seasons with Henriot Levy of the American Conservatory of Chicago. Miss Swedberg is so highly recommended, both as a pianist and teacher, that the Conservatory expects to offer unusual opportunities the coming year. In addition to the advanced work, Miss Swedberg will have charge of some of the intermediate work.

In connection with the regular course in voice work, will be offered special ensemble classes, quartette and glee club. These classes are open not only to those studying privately, but to any interested in chorus training. This department is under the direction of Miss Jennie Garrett of Maryville, a pupil of Charles W. Clark of Chicago.

In the junior department, under the direction of Miss Eleanor Smith, there are offered courses for children and students doing work preparatory to the certificate course. There are also classes in normal training for teachers. Miss Smith has in her department two assistants.

Miss Ruth Hankins of the violin department is a student of Wort S. Morse of Kansas City. Miss Hankins will have in addition to her private lessons, quartette work and ensemble classes. These are an added advantage to both beginners and advanced students.

The regular fortnightly students' recital will begin early in October. All students of the Conservatory are privileged to appear on these programs.

Everhart's Coal Shed Burns.

The Maryville fire department was called out bright and early yesterday morning—at 6 a. m., which is early for Sunday, anyway—to put out a fire in the coal bins of the Everhart Coal and Ice Company at the Wabash tracks on West Fourth street. The coal had been smouldering for several days, according to Burt M. Rowley, fire chief, and when the shed caught fifty or sixty feet of it burned. The fire department put out the blaze without difficulty. William Everhart, owner of the shed and coal, estimates his loss at $40 or $50.

John Rush, editor of the Barnard Bulletin, is in Maryville on business today.

STUDENTS BEGIN TO ARRIVE TO ATTEND COLLEGE HERE

First Football Practice of Year Will Be Held Tommorrow, on the Opening Day of the School.

All will be in readiness for the opening of the State Teachers College tomorrow. Many students are arriving today and are registering so as to avoid the rush tomorrow.

Miss Margaret James, the new musical director who is to take Miss Helen Zenor's place, arrived n Maryville yesterday and will be ready to begin her work on scchedule time.

Robert Rice, the new physical director, is here, having come during the past week. He announces that the first football practice will be held Tuesday and that no time will be lost from then on in whipping a team into shape for this year's season on the gridiron.

It is too early yet to tell much about what the prospects are for a winning team. So far the college is pinning its hopes for a strong team on the fact that "Big Bill" Richards and Charley Wells have signified their intention of returning to school this fall. It is thought that some other members of last year's squad will follow the example of the above named veterans and don uniforms this week.

Only three games have definitely contracted for to this date. They are with Tarkio, one on the local field and one of the Tarkio grounds, and with the State Teachers College of Kirksville. It is planned to schedule games with Highland College, Graceland College, St. Joseph Veterinary College, Midland College and Missouri Valley College.

Nodaway Court Adjourns a While.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hopper and Mrs. N. F. Hopper and Mrs. M. A. Joy returned Saturday morning from a two months' visit with relatives in Colorado.

LEGION MAY HAVE A POST IN COUNTY

VETERANS ARE TALKING OVER THE IDEA OF ORGANIZING

NEW MEMBERS NEEDED

National Drive Starts Next Week—Goal Set at a Million—Quota of Missouri Is 34,488

Maryville and Nodaway county veterans of the world war, practically all of whom are now returned to their homes, are beginning to talk about forming a post or posis of the American Legion. So far, the agitation has not proceeded beyond the conversation stage, but it is more than likely that within a few days a call will be issued for a mass meeting of former soldiers, sailors and marines to take formal action on an organization. Maryville is one of the few cities of its size in the state that has not organized a post of the legion. What is needed here just now is someone to take the initiative in crystalizing the sentiment in the county.

Missouri has 149,344 men in service during the war. According to figures issued by the national executive committee of the legion, Missouri must have a membership of 34,488 in order to do its share in bringing the legion's membership to a million, the goal set for a campaign that is to begin next week. The legion now has more than 400,000 members.

Drive Will Last Six Days.

A nation-wide campaign to increase the membership of the American Legion to 1,000,000 veterans of the great war will be started by all state branches and local posts throughout the country on Monday, September 15. The drive will last six days, closing on Saturday, September 20. In that time each state will be expected to fill a membership quota necessary to make the strength of the Legion nationally one million members.

More than one-third of the million —400,000 soldiers, sailors and marines of the recent war organized in upward of 3,500 posts from coast to coast — has already been obtained. Henry D. Lindsley, chairman of the National Executive Committee, has appointed these 400,000 the General Membership Drive Committee, each one with a quota of three of his "buddies" to enroll in his local post in the week of the campaign. The slogan of the drive will be "Let's Stick Together." It will be posted in large and small communities throughout the country.

The membership quota for each state has been worked out on the number of men who served in the army, navy or marine corps during the war from that state. Many states have almost reached their assigned quotas already and the drive in those states will be to double their present enrollment. One of the chief incentives of the campaign will be the fact that each state's voting strength at the national convention in Minneapolis on November 10, 11 and 12 will be based on its membership prior to October 10, thirty days before the convention assembles.

Teams to Go After Members.

The campaign for one million members will be conducted on intensive lines. Counties and posts will be assigned their individual quotas. Teams will be formed in each post and cities, towns and country districts divided into workable sub-divisions so that an opportunity will be available for a personal appeal to every ex-service man. Noonday and evening meetings will be held and speakers sent to theatres, motion picture houses, agricultural fairs and industrial districts to present the legion to the veterans.

In a statement sent today to the members of the Legion on the membership drive, Henry D. Lindsley, chairman of the National Executive Committee, says:

"Veterans working for the American Legion are working for America which needs the help of all her sons to conserve the principles for which the United States fought against Germany. Editors, merchants, employers and all good Americans extended their co-operation in the Liberty Loan drives. You members of the American Legion represent a drive started by the 4,800,000 men and women who offered their lives to safeguard the liberty which they now enjoy."

To the state which leads the country in the membership drive the National Executive Committee will pre-

NEW SCHOOL LAW AT WORK; 25 ON LIST OF ABSENTEES

Almost One in a Hundred Students in County Fail to Appear—New Officer on Their Trail.

The new school attendance law is beginning to show its teeth in Nodaway county. Today Bert Cooper, county superintendent of schools, turned over to Ed Wallace, the new county attendance officer, the names of twenty-five students who failed to show up for school during the last week. These names come mainly from the rural schools, as all of the town reports are not yet in.

Roughly speaking, one in a hundred of the students listed on the school enumeration lists failed to appear for work. About 5,550 students are listed in the county between 6 and 20 years old. The school attendance law applies to those from 7 to 16, which would cut down the total about half.

Mr. Wallace, using special blanks provided for the purpose, will notify the parents or guardians of the missing children. If these children do not begin to attend school within three days from the time the notice gets to them, as shown on the reports of the teachers at the end of this week, arrests will follow.

MARYVILLE VETERANS ATTEND G. A. R. MEETING AT COLUMBUS

What May Be the Last Great Encampment Opened There Yesterday With Religious Services

A good representation from Maryville is attending what may be the last great encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, which opened yesterday at Columbus, Ohio. This is the fifty-third annual meeting. Union religious services in Memorial Hall opened the encampment. In the evening there was a program of welcome, with addresses by Governor James M. Cox and Mayor George J. Karb. The big day of the encampment wil be Wednesday, when the parade will be held. For the first time in the history of the G. A. R., others —veterans of the Spanish and European wars—have been invited to march in this year's parade. Major General John L. Clem, U. S. A., retired, familiarly known throughout the nation as "Johnny" Clem, is one of the guests at the national encampment. General Clem entered the Civil War at the age of ten years as a drummer boy from Newark, Ohio.

PERSHING IS HOME; RECEIVES OVATION

GENERAL ARRIVES IN NEW YORK ABOARD THE LEVIATHAN

TO HEAD PARADE THERE

First Division, 26,600 Strong, Will Follow Its Leader Wednesday Through Streets of City

New York, Sept. 8.—General Pershing, commander of America's two million victorious crusaders, hero of the world war, responsible head of the army that turned the tide of battle at St. Mihiel and in the Argonne, came home today in triumph after more than two years in France.

On behalf of a grateful nation, New York, in her holiday dress, welcomed him with joyous pride and unreserved emotion, giving vent to its enthusiasm by all the time-honored means that men have to exalt a chosen personage and pay a just tribute to distinguished national service.

Pershing stood in simple human wonderment as his countrymen proclaimed his valor. He was obviously deeply touched by the sight of those hundreds of thousands of waving hands and the discordant sounds of thundering peace guns, shrieking sirens and madly cheering people. This was an American "hot time" in contrast with the magnificent post-war demonstrations that the commander of the American Expeditionary Force had figured in when Paris and London celebrated the victory.

The start of the three-day celebration began at dawn and will come to an end with a monster parade and review Wednesday.

New York, Sept. 8.—General John J. Pershing arrived in New York today abroad the giant liner Leviathan and was given the greatest reception ever tendered a returning hero.

His arrival was much different from his departure over two years ago when he slipped out to sea in command of the first 30,000 troops sent to Europe. Then there were no whistles or cheering crowds. Secrecy marked his departure, and the first intimation the American people had that the United States was actually in the war was when the news was given out that Pershing had arrived on the other side.

Mayor Hylan, Secretary of War Baker, General Peyton C. March and other city, State, Federal and high army officials met General Pershing and his staff as the giant Leviathan steamed up the bay to the booming of cannon and shrill whistles of boats lined up to greet the distinguished guests.

Armored cruisers and huge warships led the way firing salutes to welcome the chief of the American Expeditionary Forces.

Great Reception Arranged

The Mayor's Committee of Welcome to Homecoming Troops of which Rodman Wanamaker is chairman, had made arrangements for one of the greatest receptions ever accorded a military hero. The bay was alive with all kinds of craft. They joined in a demonstration that began from Ambrose Channel and headed for the Narrows.

The committee fleet that went down the bay consisted of the police boat Patrol, the steamer Correction and two others. The Patrol carried Mayor Hylan, Rodman Wannamaker, Commissioner Whalen, the Secretary of War and other high army and navy dignitaries.

Led by a motorcycle escort and followed by two platoons of mounted police the procession went to the City Hall, where Mayor Hylan officially welcomed General Pershing. The impressive ceremony at the City Hall lasted an hour.

General Pershing was then taken to the Waldrof-Astoria. Headquarters were opened for him on Thursday by Major General James W. McAndrews, formerly Chief of Staff of the A. E. F. overseas, who is in full charge of all Pershing's receptions, both here and in Washington.

March in Combat Regalia.

The parade on Wednesday will be the first in which a division marched in full combat regalia. This is the first time the march has been down the avenue. It is ex-

PRESIDENT SEEKS THE PEOPLE'S AID

LAND TITLES OF WORLD ARE IN DANGER, HE DECLARES

"ANY GUARANTEE GOOD"

Even 10 Per Cent of Safety Better Than None, He Believes — Great Crowd at Omaha

Omaha, Sept. 8. — The president again today demanded that the people aid in the ratification of the Versailles treaty. Addressing an audience that filled every inch of space in the big auditorium here, he declared that ratification was absolutely necessary to "ratify the land titles of the whole world."

"The United States must lead in the approval of the treaty to guarantee the rights of the small nations of Europe," he said. "The constitution of the League of Nations is a guarantee to end war."

The president said he would be recreant to the fathers and mothers of this nation if he did not demand this guarantee.

"It is not an absolute guarantee, but it is a guarantee, and a 10 per cent guarantee would be a great step forward. Without this guarantee, I want to say that in another generation or two we must have another and far more disastrous war."

The chief feature of the president's address was his discussion of the problems of reservations. He declared that the timidity of the opponents of the league who always wanted to be prepared to scuttle was hard to understand. "What are they afraid of?" he demanded. "The United States has never failed to meet an international obligation, and in the providence of God we never will," he declared, a [illegible]st great applause.

HAD TO CALL IN THE NEIGHBORS

Mrs. Rock Was So Rundown Couldn't Do Housework—Restored By Tanlac

"This is the only medicine I've ever taken that does just what they say it will do," said Mrs. J. L. Rock, R. F. D. No. 4, Piatt, Ill., in telling her experience with Tanlac.

"For eleven years," continued Mrs. Rock, "I suffered with stomach trouble and was in a general run down condition, but it's all different with me now, for three bottles of Tanlac almost made a new woman of me. I lost my appetite and got so that actually I would get sick at the smell of food cooking. What little I did manage to force down would cause gas to form, and press up around my heart so bad at times I could hardly get a good breath. I would have cramping pains in the pit of my stomach which would last for many hours, then to make matters worse my kidneys became affected and I had terrible pains in my back and sides and at times could hardly turn over in bed. I finally got so weak and run down I couldn't do my housework and had to call in the neighbors to help me. I was so nervous the least little noise would upset me, and I could sleep but very little at night.

"I was in this very condition when I heard about Tanlac and asked my husband to get me a bottle, and to my surprise and delight I started to improve right from the start. I have taken three bottles now and I'll tell you it's wonderful the way this medicine helped me. The pains in my back and besides have all left me. My nerves are quiet and I sleep fine now, all night long and when I get up in the mornings I am rested and refreshed. I never know what it is to have a headache now, I have a splendid appetite and feel perfectly well in every way and I want everybody to know what a great medicine Tanlac is."

"Tanlac is sold in Maryville by Koch Pharmacy, in Conception Junction by A. M. Colly, in Pickering by H. M. G.O.P. WILL KIDNAP A GOOD IDEA AGAIN

WILL TRY TO GET CREDIT FOR PROTECTING PUBLIC LANDS

SMOOT CHANGES VIEWS

An Opponent of Measure Once Before, He Now Fathers Bill He Helped to Kill

Washington, Sept. 6.—Another Democratic legislative achievement is about to be kidnapped by the Republicans, and, in the course of time, the country wil be asked to applaud the intelligence of the G. O. P. in protecting public lands containing coal, oil, gas, potash and sodium. It is hoped by Republican leaders that by that time the Democratic fight of five years, the fruit of which was killed by a Republican filibuster, will have been forgotten, and that public praise will be undiluted.

The name of Reed Smoot will be attached to this measure, as he is its official proponent at this time. Yet, so strange are the ways of Republican politics, he was one of the most instrumental in seeing that this same meritorious measure was killed because it was formulated and urged by Democrats. Through the same line of reasoning Republican senators, heretofore opponents, displayed a calm reversal of form and were found among those strongly supporting the bill.

Fifty Million Acres Tied Up.

For nearly ten years some 50,000,000 acres of land have been tied up because of their withdrawal from public entry by president Taft. The value of this land today is approximately one billion dollars. It took the Democrats under the lead of Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana six years to perfect this measure and develop the necessary strength so that it could be brought to the floor of the senate from the committee room. The G. O. P. leaders who slaughtered a Democratic bill have now appropriated the same act as their own.

The old custom was to sell public lands outright, together with title, and this resulted in many private fortunes being made but without adequate return to the government. The provisions of the Walsh bill—practically identical with the present Smoot bill—are for the government to retain title to the 50,000,000 remaining acres containing coal, oil, gas, potash and sodium, but permitting leases of 20 years' duration with suitable returns to the federal owners.

Politics Is the Chief Cause.

Pure politics is manifestly the chief cause of the Republicans' change of front, Democratic leaders assert, the reason being that public approval of the bill has been frequently manifested during its long struggle toward enactment. Another reason is that because of the decade of idleness the production of all the commodities mentioned has seriously fallen off, and greater supplies are needed immediately by the world.

A conference was held early in the Wilson administration in 1913, attended by Secretary of the Interior Lane, Senator Walsh and Representative Foster of Illinois, chairman of their respective committees on mines and mining, and Senator Henry L. Myers of Montana and Representative Scott Ferris of Oklahoma, respective chairmen of the public lands committee. The result was the measure now known as the Smoot leasing bill. It was introduced that year, 1913, and in every succeeding Congress and was stouty opposed by all Republican senators and, for a time, by a few Democrats from the west who wanted the old system to prevail.

Some Amendments Accepted.

This opposition brought some amendments that were adopted by the public lands committee, but the bill, after six years' struggle, passed the senate in 1917, after a prolonged debate. About a month later the House of Representatives passed a bill differing radically from the Senate measure, and more generally resembling the original Walsh bill. After a delay of eight months the conference committee of the two houses reported in February, 1918, but the bill was killed in a filibuster engineered largely by Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, who was particularly aided by Senator Smoot of Utah, the "father" of the kidnaped Democratic act.

Canvasses made by whips of both the Democratic and Republican parties indicate little opposition when the voting is to be done, despite continuous opposition oratory on the part of Senator La Follette.

17,000,000-BUSHEL DECREASE IN SPRING WHEAT INDICATED

Report of Department of Agriculture Shows Falling off in a Month — Several Causes

Washington, Sept. 8. — Seventeen million bushels less of spring wheat than was promised on August 1 is indicated by the September 1 reports of the Department of Agriculture, made public today. The decrease is due to the combined influence of blight, rust scab and minor causes, including grasshoppers.

The indications are for less than half a normal yield. The production of winter and spring wheat combined is thus reduced to 923,000,000 bushels, only 6,000,000 above last year.

"Doctor" Had the Wrong Idea.

St. Louis, Sept. 8.—Alfred Brown, a negro, stripped of his professional title of "doctor", is going to the workhouse for a year. He's going because he recommended peculiar prescriptions to Mis Alice Buckley, a policewoman, for the removal of a husband who did not exist. Miss Buckley visited the "doctor" and asked him what was the matter with her. Miss Buckley said the negro told her that her husband was in love with a fat blonde woman who lived nine blocks from her home. He recommended certain incantations that were to make the blonde woman "shrivel up and blow away," and her husband crazy.

THE Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is owned by 4649 men and women—not one owning as much as 10 per cent of the total.

The Company is not personally owned or controlled by one or two men.

The stockholders have conferred full authority and sole responsibility for the handling of the Company's affairs in a Board of Directors of seven men.

COMETS HIT STUPPY FLORALS FOR A FINE 6-TO-3 VICTORY

Locals Win in First Three Innings One of Best Games Played This Season In Maryville

The Maryville Comets humbled the Stuppy Florals of St. Joseph at the ball park yesterday to the tune of 6 to 3 in one of the fastest and best played games ever seen on the local grounds.

The home boys got to the visitors' pitcher early in the game, getting a run in the first and three in the second inning. After this batfest the St. Joe pitcher was jerked out and another one substituted, who pitched the prettiest brand of ball that has been seen on the home diamond this year. Only four hits were garnered off the visitors' second pitcher in seven innings.

"Babe" Welling pitched five innings for the Comets. In that time he allowed four hits and showed up well. In the fifth, because he has been out of the game for several weeks, he weakened, and Manager Homer Black finished the game, allowing only one lone hit.

The game was put on ice for the Maryville team in the eighth inning, when Egley singled and scored on Black's three-base hit. Black came home soon afterward on a passed ball.

The hard hitters for the Comets were Black, with two hits, and Scott, with two hits. Conley, Tilson, Egley and Tobin were credited with singles.

The Maryville line-up was: Welling, Black, pitchers; Scott, left field; Egley, center field; Heise, right field; Conley, short stop; Tilson, first base; Tobin, second base; H. Buhler, third base; Black, catcher.

The Stuppy Florals players were H. Lewis, Reed, Tomilson, Schaff, Niedermyer, Poler, J. Lewis, Minturn and Swails.

ST. JOSEPH "JOKER" CASE UP TO MARYVILLE CIRCUIT JUDGE

John M. Dawson Has it Under Advisement — Bill Said to be a Political Maneuver

Judge John M. Dawson, circuit jurist of Maryville, took the case of the "Joker" salary bill under advisement Saturday after he had heard arguments from both sides on agreed statements of fact, says the St. Joseph Gazette. The case will probably be decided in a few days, Judge Dawson intimated.

Judge Dawson sat in the court of Judge L. A. Vories because of the disqualification of the three circuit judges who are litigants in the case. The salary bill whichs is being tried is a new one passed by the last session of the legislature. In the bill the circuit judges are given the right to name the number of deputies in the various offices in the courthouse.

It has been contended that several Democrats from St. Joseph had the bill drafted and passed for the purpose of transferring the power from the Republican county court to the Democratic circuit court.

No deputies have been paid under the terms of the new act, which entitles them to an increase in salary.

The "joker" in the salary increase bill seeks to take from the Republican county court the right to say how many deputies shall be employed in the several offices, and vests it in the Democratic circuit court, according to the St. Joseph News-Press. The act went into effect, if at all, August 7, last. Until its constitutionality can be determined, all deputies, assistants, clerks and stenographers will be paid the former salary schedule. Nearly all county officers and many deputies were in the court room to hear the argument.

SINGER IN PROGRAM TONIGHT PUPIL OF EUROPEAN MASTERS

Prepared Under de Reszke for Season at Convent Garden, London— Violinist Comes Also

Madame Odette Le Fontenay, the famous soprano who will give her Edison concert tonight at the First M. E. church, arrived in Maryville this morning, accompanied by Charles Young, a well known violinist who assists Madame Le Fontenay in her concert.

In the person of Madame Le Fontenay, Maryville will see and hear one of the best known soprano artists in the country. She has studied under musicians of international fame. Her first music master was Philippe Condert, assistant to Jean de Reszke. Under him she studied vocal music and later studied for three years under the great master himself. Jean de Reszke frequently spoke of her as one of his leading pupils. It was under his direction that she was prepared for the Coronation season at Convent Garden, London, where she sang in "Carmen", "Madame Butterfly," "La Boheme," "Pagliacci," and other great operas.

Later she toured Europe, singing in the famous music centers of Spain and Italy. She has sung in the Metropolitan Opera House in New York several seasons and this winter has been engaged to sing in the high schools of New York City, giving instructive interpretations of the famous operas. She will also sing in concerts in November with S. Le Steffano, a world famous harpist at Cleveland, Ohio.

The present tour that Madame Le Fontenay is on takes her through Missouri, Nebraska, Iowa, Utah, Colorado, and Idaho.

Tonight this gifted soprano will demonstrate the superior tone quality of the Edison phonograph.

Her demonstration will include singing in unison with her own records on the Edison. At times she will pause to show how perfect the reproduction of her voice is.

Mme. Le Fontenay is a member of the old de Bouligny family of New Orleans, many of whose members have become prominent statesman of Louisiana. She herself was born in Paris and is of French Ancestry.
